Admissions Requirements:

To apply for a program at Durham College, prospective students must meet the following criteria:

High School Diploma: A secondary school diploma or equivalent is required for most programs.

Program-Specific Requirements: Some programs may have additional admission requirements such as specific course prerequisites (e.g., math, science), portfolio submissions (for art/design programs), or interviews.

Language Proficiency: Non-native English speakers must demonstrate proficiency in English through a recognized language test.